Hello Lalit Sir, we are college students participating in a hackathon competition organized by our college. As part of this competition, we have created a website for your bakery to present your shop, products, menu, images, and contact details in an attractive and professional way. This website is being developed for educational and competition purposes only. We kindly request your permission to use your bakery's name, product images, and shop details on our website and present it in our college competition. We would be very grateful for your permission and support. Thank you, Sir!
